Old City

[Fusion]

Get the party started inside this cavernous den devoted to sushi and trendy Japanese fare. Head upstairs to the sultry lounge to share a few appetizers—heavenly king crab-stuffed dumplings are a must—or sushi as you tip back a few green tea margaritas or sake cocktails (though some tables prefer to pop bottles of champagne). Downstairs in the main dining room, roomy tables accommodate large groups as they dig into lazy-Susan-style platters heaped with hefty portions of maguro, California rolls and salmon.
